Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West Partner Teno A. West featured in US Financier Worldwide's Resources Guide to International Infrastructure Projects

Providence, RI – January 6, 2012 – Pannone Lopes Devereaux & West LLC (PLDW) Partner Teno A. West, who leads the firm's Municipal Infrastructure Team, is a featured author in the Global Reference Guide: Infrastructure 2011, published by US Financier Worldwide, a leading source of news and analysis in the global corporate finance marketplace. Mr. West's article entitled "Marketing and Implementing Emerging Waste Conversion Technologies in the US" highlights several considerations that are often overlooked during waste conversion projects and provides first-hand knowledge of the challenges and opportunities faced by decision-makers in this new frontier.

Mr. West is considered a national authority in the areas of public-private partnerships; water and wastewater law; solid waste management alternative energy projects; procurement law; and design-build-operate projects. He routinely represents government agencies in many parts of the United States dealing with the challenges associated with municipal infrastructure projects and related legislation required for undertaking alternative procurements and design-build and design-build-operate projects. To access the article, please visit www.pldw.com.

The PLDW Municipal Infrastructure Team delivers responsive, cost-effective and strategic legal counsel and guidance to states, counties, municipalities and public authorities across the country seeking solutions to complex infrastructure projects. The firm's Municipal Infrastructure attorneys are at the forefront of new developments in efficient methodologies for water and sewer treatment facilities, solid waste management facilities, municipal buildings, recreational facilities, transportation systems and other public infrastructure projects. The Team draws upon in-depth experience in law, public finance, project management, real estate, contract maintenance and other disciplines to solve complicated legal issues on municipal projects from conception to completion. Whether a project involves financing, structuring contract documents, design-build, design-build-operate or the design of comprehensive public-private partnerships as it relates to a public project, PLDW attorneys deliver the fullest range of legal services to clients nationwide, as well as Puerto Rico.
